2 MR. ELMORE: Good morning, Judge.

3 THE COURT: Good morning.

4 All right. We're here on Case No.

5 1, Shawn Mobley. Mr. Elmore is here

6 for the defense, and Zach Wynkoop for 7 the Commonwealth.

8 smobley(2).txt
This is defense's motion for 9 reconsideration filed, based on the 10 motion to suppress and that was heard
11 in this courtroom on April 3rd, 2017.

12 MR. WYNKOOP: That's correct, Your 13 Honor.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Elmore, you may 15 proceed.

16 MR. ELMORE: Judge, I filed this
17 motion because I felt this Court had 18 erred on the law based on the facts.

19 As the Court knows, and I have 20 presented two cases or three cases. I
21 know the Court has read those.

22 I think that what we have here is,
23 well, these cases talk about -- one of 24 the first things I want to talk about,

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY
2 Judge, is the law. And the two cases
3 presented are Supreme Court cases
4 Commonwealth vs. Roland, and 5 Commonwealth vs. Melendez.

6 Now I tried to find cases that I
7 think are similar to our situation as 8 possible, and that was with 9 Commonwealth vs. Roe which is a
10 Superior Court case, and I talk about
11 an open door and I also talk about
12 finding an item --

13 THE COURT: Mr. Elmore, remember,

14 smobley(2).txt
that was a stormy night.
15 MR. ELMORE: Yes, the door was 16 open --
17 THE COURT: Right.
18 MR. ELMORE: -- and they walked in.
19 THE COURT: Right.
20 MR. ELMORE: And in that situation
21 the Superior Court said, that was not 22 enough.
23 THE COURT: Exactly. And I would
24 agree with the Superior Court.

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY 5
2 MR. ELMORE: And in this particular
3 situation we have some prior 4 communications between my client and
5 the police officers. I think that it
6 is clear that they did two things.
7 The record reflects that the officer
8 said they -- on Page -- I have the page
9 here, Page 14.
10 THE COURT: what line?
11 MR. ELMORE: Line 2, Judge.
12 THE COURT: Okay.
13 MR. ELMORE: It says, "So at that 14 point the door was unlocked. I went 15 back into the basement with the 16 defendant along with Officer Lee. When 17 I went down into the basement I smelled
18 what I believed to be burnt marijuana."
19 THE COURT: You're on page?

smobley(2).txt
20 MR. ELMORE: I don't know. Do you
21 all have the same thing?
22 THE COURT: I have on the bottom of
23 Page 14 --
24 MR. ELMORE: That's how I went

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY
2 through it. I was at the bottom of the
3 page.
4 I don't know. Do you have the same
5 page I have?
6 THE COURT: Page 14 on the very
7 bottom?
8 MR. ELMORE: Yes.
9 THE COURT: Go ahead.
10 MR. WYNKOOP: So on the bottom of 11 Page 13, Your Honor.
12 MR. ELMORE: Yes.
13 THE COURT: Okay.
14 MR. ELMORE: "So at that point the 15 door was unlocked. I went back into 16 the basement with the defendant along
17 with Officer Lee. When I went down
18 into the basement I smelled what I
19 believed to be burnt marijuana."
20 And on Page 14, it says, "After 21 smelling the burnt marijuana in the 22 basement does the defendant remain in 23 the basement? "
24 "Yes. He was looking around for, he

smobley(2).txt

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY

2 said his keys. Your Honor, I remember
3 when I went down, on the right-hand
4 side, there was, it looked like
5 shelving there, was a set of keys
6 hanging. I did notice the defendant
7 walked by them and not grab them --
8 this is the answer -- he seemed to be 9 pacing back and forth."

10 "He stated to me -- he stated to me
11 that he thought the tenants stole his 12 keys, and I told him that I didn't
13 believe that happened because I hadn't
14 seen anyone go to the basement, and I
15 pointed out, I said, "Are those your 16 keys right there?" And just real quick
17 he said "Oh, yeah, they're mine," and 18 we exited the basement."

19 And then on Page 15, the officer
20 stated -- I got a page out of place
21 here.

22 It says: "QUESTION: Okay, what
23 were you looking for down there, when 24 you returned to the basement?

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY

2 Just something to secure the door.
3 Because it looked like he, you know,
4 being the landlord, I was kind of 5 hoping to find something to secure the 6 door with."

smobley(2).txt

7 And then if you go further down it
8 says, "I went back into the basement,
9 Your Honor, I started noticing more so
10 than the burnt marijuana smell, I
11 started smelling unburnt marijuana."

12 Now, Judge, this is somebody that,
13 "I started smelling." He's a police
14 officer, so to say the fact that he's 15 smelling this marijuana and he's 16 walking around the basement, the last I
17 checked it was illegal.

18 And then it says "I was walking just 19 looking for something to secure the 20 door. I noticed in the back in the 21 other part of the basement, there was a
22 desk and I saw unused packaging."

23 So he's looking all the way in the 24 back of the basement, looking for

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY
2 something to secure this door. That's
3 looking. That's searching.

4 So under what authority does he have 5 a right to go into a private area and 6 search?

7 And then, Judge, we talk about
8 probable cause. Probable cause arises
9 if there is, in fact, a crime.

10 I think that at the most, basically
11 he's saying, there's no crime here,
12 he's saying it's not a crime, but he's

smobley(2).txt

13 saying just ignore that, I didn't care
14 about that. But do you have a right to 15 go in someone's house and search when
16 there's no crime, there's no probable
17 cause?

18 So, Judge, at this point -- and I
19 believe Melendez says, police can't 20 create exigent circumstances. So it's 21 easy to say that the crime had taken
22 place and I had probable cause,
23 probable cause is here but there's no
24 crime, then there's no probable cause.

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY

2 So we move forward to exigent
3 circumstances.

4 Now, both Melendez and in
5 particular, Roland, talks about exigent
6 circumstances. And in Roland it says
7 it's private if there is a presumptive
8 unreasonableness to go in somewhere
9 private without a warrant; that's the 10 first thing.

11 The second thing, Judge, is that 12 they talk about a list of factors, and 13 Commonwealth vs. Roland, in terms of 14 reasonableness, you got to have 15 probable cause and you got to have
16 exigent circumstances, and the factors
17 they talk about, among the factors, the 18 gravity of the offense, whether we have

smobley(2).txt

19 an offense here in this case, yes or 20 no?

21 THE COURT: Can I see those?

22 MR. ELMORE: Yes. And I don't see
23 those here. I don't see a crime here.
24 You don't have any permission by the

11

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY

2 client and he testified that in the 3 notes that, he testified:

4 "Did he give you permission to go
5 into the basement? No."

6 "Did he ask you to lock the door?
7 No."

8 This is a government action. This 9 is not a neighbor. That's why we have 10 the amendment to protect citizens
11 against the government. So a
12 government actor, you just can't walk
13 in and say, I'm going to go over to 14 this guy's house and I'm going to roll
15 into this guy's house, and I'm going to 16 lock his door?

17 Did he tell you to lock the door?
18 No. So what are you doing walking
19 around his basement, walking around in 20 his private residence? It's clear in 21 the notes of testimony that he did not 22 have permission.

23 And it's clear that he went in there
24 to lock a door. What was he going to

smobley(2).txt

12

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY

2 lock it with? He didn't have a key.

3 Is it reasonable to suggest, well,
4 he's going to find something in 5 somebody's house to lock the door? He 6 also could have gotten the keys from --
7 he knew that my client wasn't there?

8 We can not take away a person's
9 privacy rights because a police officer
10 says, well, I decide I want to lock a
11 door. That's not exigent circumstances
12 under any situation.

13 If they wanted to protect the 14 situation they could have did it with 15 less intrusive way; waited to contact
16 my partner, to see if he had his phone
17 number to see if he came back, but you
18 can't just open the door and start
19 searching and in the notes of 20 testimony, he said he was looking and 21 there was an objection; he was 22 searching. Looking, searching they're 23 basically the same thing. He was 24 conducting a search. He was looking

13

2 for something.

3 Judge, I don't see how the law
4 protects this issue in terms of there

smobley(2).txt
5 is no probable cause and there's no
6 exigent circumstances, and you have to 7 have both. There's certainly no
8 exigent circumstances to go inside a
9 house to lock a door.

10 In Melendez very clearly, the 11 holding in Melendez is the police can 12 not create exigent circumstances.

13 So, I don't know whether exigent
14 circumstances -- I asked him very 15 clearly and the notes say I asked was 16 anybody screaming --

17 THE COURT: I understand, counsel.
18 I got it.

19 MR. ELMORE: All right.

20 THE COURT: I got it.

21 MR. ELMORE: Judge, I think that I'm 22 correct -- the two cases I gave to the 23 Court and Commonwealth vs. Roe, I think
24 they're all on point, and I would ask

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY 14
2 the Court to reconsider and grant the 3 motion to suppress.

4 THE COURT: Commonwealth, do you
5 have anything additional?

6 MR. WYNKOOP: I have argument based
7 on counsel's case law.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. WYNKOOP: Just briefly, Your
10 Honor, I just want to put my three

11 smobley(2).txt
points on the record.

12 THE COURT: Go ahead.

13 MR. WYNKOOP: I think the first one
14 I'd like to put on the record for 15 submission is that the case law here is 16 not at all analogous with the situation
17 we're dealing with.

18 I would agree with counsel that the 19 exigent prong laid out in both Roland
20 and Roe are correct and the Court ruled
21 correctly there; but these cases are 22 not analogous to what we have here.

23 Just mostly what I want to hit on is 24 Mr. Elmore's assertion that looking for

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY 15
2 something and searching are basically
3 the same thing.

4 In this courtroom and every
5 courtroom in this building they are a
6 hundred percent not the same thing.
7 Searching is a legal term of art. A
8 search is something a police officer
9 will perform in the hopes of finding
10 contraband, weapons, narcotics, et
11 cetera, and so forth.

12 Looking for, on the other hand,
13 Officer Farley, he was returning to the 14 house where a landlord tenant dispute
15 had just occurred, where both parties
16 had agreed to padlock the door with a

smobley(2).txt
17 chain and a lock that both parties had 18 had a key to, and after that agreement,
19 this gentleman right here disappeared
20 and so did the chain.

21 Officer Farley took it upon himself,
22 rather than 11:00 at night leaving the 23 basement door wide open, rather than 24 doing that, Officer Farley served the

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY
2 community, and entered the basement
3 that he had already been given
4 permission to go in to, to see if he
5 could find that chain and locks so Mr.
6 Mobley's personal property is not
7 destroyed.

8 And lastly, Your Honor, exigent
9 circumstances to search, as soon as he 10 sees the unburnt large quantities of 11 marijuana, Officer Farley, he does not 12 continue looking.

13 So Officer Farley did not go in the 14 basement for a search, that's a legal 15 term of art, but rather went into the 16 basement to help the defendant.

17 So for those three reasons I would 18 ask Your Honor to deny the motion for 19 reconsideration.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 All right. I have read all three 22 cases and I agree that in this

smobley(2).txt
23 particular case, there isn't reasonable
24 suspicion, there isn't probable cause,

17
1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY
2 or exigent circumstances but that's not
3 the facts of this case.

4 The facts of this case is the 5 officer responds to the dispute and as 6 a resolve of that dispute he has a key
7 to enter the basement. The landlord
8 and the tenant give him permission to 9 go in the basement.

10 The landlord actually invited the 11 officer in, on the first go around.
12 There's a padlock and there's a chain.

13 After that agreement, the door was 14 left open, the police officer was 15 outside with the tenant and the 16 defendant disappears. The tenant has 17 permission to be in the basement as 18 well as the landlord.

19 The landlord never revoked his
20 permission. Permission trumps
21 reasonable probable cause and exigent
22 circumstances. The owner never 23 revoked. The tenant had a right to 24 give permission if there's an agreement

18
1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY
2 that a chain and a lock would be on it,
3 both people would have keys, that was

smobley(2).txt

4 never resolved, so that was never 5 revoked.

6 I've read all three of the cases,
7 Roe, Roland and Melendez, and they are 8 totally factually different from this 9 case. Which there is nothing similar 10 to those three instances where the 11 police, on their own, decide to enter a
12 property with no dialogue of the owner
13 except for the underage drinking case.

14 And in this case permission was 15 given by the owner and he also had the 16 right to give permission, the door was 17 left open, the chain was missing. The 18 officer went in to look for the chain,
19 not to search the property.

20 For that reason I will deny the 21 motion for reconsideration; and the 22 motion to suppress is denied.

23 Thank you.

24 (Pause.)

19

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY

2 MR. ELMORE: Judge, my client wants
3 to waive and we're asking for a recusal
4 to go in front of another judge.

5 THE COURT: Sure, in an abundance of 6 caution.

7 It's going to be a waiver?

8 MR. ELMORE: Yes. It's going to be 9 a waiver, Your Honor.

smobley(2).txt

10 THE COURT: well, let's, while he's 11 here, let's do the waiver colloquy and 12 then I'll send it to another room on 13 another date.

14 Do you have the waiver colloquy form
15 filled out, Mr. Elmore?

16 MR. ELMORE: Yes.

17 (Pause.)

18 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning
19 again, Mr. Mobley.

20 THE DEFENDANT: Good morning.

21 THE COURT: Is he sworn?

22 THE CRIER: Let me do that, Judge.

23 Sir, please state your name and 24 spell it for the Court.

20

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY

2 THE COURT: Pull that mic closer to
3 you.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Shawn Mobley,
5 S-h-a-w-n, M-o-b-l-e-y.

6 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr.
7 Mobley.

8 As you are aware, I have denied the 9 motion to suppress and the motion for 10 reconsideration, and after those two 11 things were done I had asked your
12 attorney whether you wanted to proceed
13 to a jury trial or a waiver trial. And 14 your attorney represented to me that 15 you would like to go to a waiver trial.

smobley(2).txt

16 However, you've asked me to recuse
17 myself, take myself off this case, now
18 that I've heard so much about it, and I
19 granted that motion, for a waiver
20 trial.

21 And so what we're going to do now,
22 I'm going to colloquy you on your right
23 to waive your right to a jury trial and 24 then we will send you to another waiver

21

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY
2 room to a judge who knows nothing about
3 this case for your trial.

4 Do you understand that?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: You agree with 7 everything with the recitation of the 8 facts as I've laid them out as it
9 relates to this colloquy?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Very good. Okay.
12 So before I can accept your waiver of 13 your jury trial rights, I am required
14 by law to ask you certain questions to 15 make sure that you understand that you
16 have the absolute right to a jury
17 trial, and that right is guaranteed to 18 you by United States and Pennsylvania
19 Constitutions.

20 Do you understand that?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

smobley(2).txt

22 THE COURT: So, sir, how old are
23 you?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Thirty-eight, back

22

2 when this --

3 THE COURT: Actually, pull that
4 microphone closer to you.

5 How far did you go in school?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Three years of 7 college.

8 THE COURT: Can you read, write and 9 understand the English language?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I can.

11 THE COURT: Have you ever been or 12 are you currently being treated for any 13 mental illness?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Would that condition or 16 any medication you may be on as a
17 result of that condition affect your 18 ability to understand what's going on 19 here today?

20 THE DEFENDANT: No.

21 THE COURT: Are you under the 22 influence of any drugs, alcohol or 23 prescription medication that would
24 affect your ability to understand

23

2 smobley(2).txt
what's happening here today?

3 THE DEFENDANT: No.

4 THE COURT: All right, sir. I am
5 showing you what's called a waiver of 6 your jury trial rights form.

7 Have you reviewed this form with 8 your attorney?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

10 THE COURT: As I have advised you at 11 the beginning of this colloquy is you
12 have an absolute right to a jury trial
13 as guaranteed to you by both the United 14 States and Pennsylvania Constitutions.

15 Do you understand that?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Okay. With this form
18 you give up your right to that jury
19 trial, and at the bottom left-hand side
20 of this form, is that your signature?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Did you waive your right
23 to a jury trial of your own free will?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

24

2 THE COURT: Are you completely
3 satisfied with your attorney to this 4 point?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

6 THE COURT: I must advise you that
7 if you wanted a jury trial, the jury

8 smobley(2).txt
would consist of 12 citizens from the 9 community. You would be able to 10 participate with your attorney in 11 selecting that 12-member jury. The 12 jury would then listen to the facts of 13 the case and decide whether you were
14 guilty or not guilty of the charges
15 against you.

16 If the jury decided that you were 17 guilty, that verdict would have to be 18 unanimous; that is all 12 jurors would 19 have to agree.

20 Do you understand that?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

22 THE COURT: According to the form
23 that you have read and discussed and 24 signed with your attorney, you're

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY 25
2 agreeing to give up your right to a
3 jury trial and allowing the judge alone
4 to listen to the facts of the case and 5 decide whether you are guilty or not
6 guilty of the charges against you.

7 Do you understand that that is the 8 form you have signed?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And do you agree to have
11 this case heard by me today alone
12 without a jury?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

smobley(2).txt

14 THE COURT: Has anyone promised you
15 anything in exchange for your waiver of 16 your right to a jury trial?

17 THE DEFENDANT: No.

18 THE COURT: Have any threats been 19 made to you to get you to give up your 20 right to a jury trial?

21 THE DEFENDANT: No.

22 THE COURT: All right. I am
23 satisfied that the defendant is making
24 a knowing, intelligent and voluntary

26

1 COMMONWEALTH VS. MOBLEY

2 waiver of his right to a jury trial,
3 and I will accept the same.

4 We will wait until this is assigned
5 to another judge and then you can enter
6 the plea.

7 THE CRIER: 5/19.

8 THE COURT: 5/19, 704.

9 THE CRIER: 804. I'm sorry.

INVOICE FOR COPIES OF MEDICAL RECORDS

MRO processes requests for copies of medical records on behalf of your healthcare provider. Federal and state laws permit healthcare providers and companies like MRO to charge patients a "reasonable, cost-based fee" for copies of their medical records. (See 45 C.F.R. § 164.524(c)(4)). Releasing medical records is a time and labor intensive process. This fee covers the costs associated with pulling, scanning, reproducing your records, and either printing them out or putting them on a CD for you to access. Pursuant to these laws, MRO has invoiced you for the copies of the medical records that you requested.

By paying this invoice, you are representing that you have reviewed and approved the charges and have agreed to pay them. Any dispute relating to this invoice must be presented before paying this invoice. Any dispute not so presented is waived. All disputes must be resolved by arbitration under the Federal Arbitration Act through one or more neutral arbitrators before the American Arbitration Association. Class arbitrations are not permitted. Disputes must be brought only in the claimant's individual capacity and not as a representative of a member or class. An arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's claims nor preside over any form of class proceeding.

Late Payment of Invoice Balance

If MRO does not receive payment for the balance on your invoice for your records within 30 days we may choose to pursue collections processing.
